- Depredation Investigations: Suspected depredations will be followed-up by CPW staff. Primary point of contact is the local District Wildlife Manager. Follow-below steps and see map for contacts.

IF YOU SUSPECT YOUR LIVESTOCK WAS DEPREDATED

- 1 Contact your local CPW District Wildlife Manager (DWM) or CPW Area Office
  - During normal business hours (8am - 5pm, Mon - Fri), contact your local DWM or CPW Office. A map of office locations and phone numbers is on page 10.
  - If outside normal business hours, contact your local DWM or Colorado State Patrol Dispatch.
  - Be prepared to provide detailed directions to the location of the carcass.
- 2 Preserve any evidence and take photographs
  - Leave the carcass where found.
  - Do not attempt to move, bury, or incinerate the carcass.
  - Take photographs (close up and at distance) to document damaged areas of the animal and send photos to your DWM.
- 3 Arrange to meet the DWM where the damage occurred
  - If you cannot physically be present, arrange for another person to be available.
  - Your DWM will notify you of the results of the investigation and provide you with appropriate damage claim paperwork.
